

New Jersey's 'Do Not Call' List in Jeopardy

The Federal Communication Commission is considering overturning New Jersey's 'Do Not Call' law because it is more stringent than the federal program.

Currently, New Jersey's 'Do Not Call' law is among the strictest in the country. As a result, many residents report almost a 100% drop in unsolicited sales calls. Now, the law is under attack from telemarketers who want the ability to call people despite the fact that they have signed up for the 'Do Not Call' list.

Governor Codey, who sponsored the law, is asking all New Jerseyans to visit the "Protect Do Not Call" web page and take a moment to file a comment with the FCC. Let them know if you think New Jersey's consumer protection laws should be weakened.

PLEASE DO NOT REVOKE OR WEAKEN THE CURRENT LEGISLATION.
